

THE BALDY CENTER FOR LAW & SOCIAL POLICY
THEORISTS & JURISTS

Jules COLEMAN Yale Law

Michael TAUSSIG Columbia

Michael HERZFELD Harvard

All are welcome to the 2009 Theorists & Jurists public roundtable featuring:

Michael Taussig

Professor, Anthropology, Columbia University

Thursday, April 9, 2009

2:00-4:15 p.m., 108 O'Brian Hall

The Yagé Tapes: Shamanism and Intellectual Property in Colombia

In the 1970s through the 1990s, anthropologist Michael Taussig recorded the singing of Santiago Mutumbajoy, a good friend and shaman in the upper Amazon in Colombia. Come join a roundtable discussion about cultural property, inheritance, anthropology and the shaman's song.

COLLABORATORS

Marcus Boon
English, York University,
Canada

Dawson Prater
Locust Records, Chicago

COMMENTATOR

Mark Bartholomew
UB Law

See Michael Taussig again on Friday, April 10, 2009, 3:30-5:00 p.m.
Burchfield Penney Art Center, Buffalo State College

When the Sun Goes Down: A Copernican Turn of Remembrance

Taussig's work combines aspects of ethnography, story-telling, and social theory. He is the author of nine books, including, Shamanism, Colonialism, and the Wild Man; Law in a Lawless Land; and My Cocaine Museum. His most recent publication is What Color Is the Sacred? (2009).

NEXT THEORISTS & JURISTS SERIES PRESENTATION:

Friday and Saturday, April 24 & 25, 2009

Michael Herzfeld

Anthropology, Harvard University

Housing Rights and Historical Wrongs: Gentrification and Neoliberalism, from the Eternal City to the City of Angels

Full details at www.law.buffalo.edu/baldycenter/events.htm

716.645.2102 fax716.645.2900 Baldyctr@buffalo.edu

