

Carina H. Schoenberger
University at Buffalo School of Law
621 O'Brien Hall, North Campus
Buffalo, New York 14260-1100
(716) 645-3046 | carinasc@buffalo.edu

Experience

University at Buffalo School of Law, Buffalo, New York
Lecturer in Law, July 2023 – present

- Design and teach two-semester course that focuses on developing skills in legal analysis, writing, research, and oral advocacy and is required for first-year law students.

United States Attorney's Office, Northern District of New York, Syracuse, New York
Assistant United States Attorney, Senior Litigation Counsel
Appeals Division, June 2017 – May 2023; Criminal Division, September 2015 – June 2017

- As an appellate AUSA, represented the United States in appeals arising from criminal prosecutions and civil litigation in the Northern District of New York. Authored approximately seventy-five appellate briefs and argued more than twenty cases before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, including one en banc argument.
- As Senior Litigation Counsel, designed and coordinated attorney training and provided consultation and professional development for AUSAs in the Criminal and Civil Divisions.
- As a trial attorney in the Criminal Division, investigated and prosecuted crimes related to financial fraud, child exploitation, immigration, and controlled substances.
- Hiring Committee Chair, 2019-2022; Law Student Internship Program Co-Coordinator, 2018-2022; Diversity Committee Member; Recipient of Director's Award for Superior Performance as an AUSA-Appellate.

United States Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York, New York, New York
Assistant United States Attorney, Civil Division, October 2010 – August 2015

- Initiated affirmative litigation and defended civil matters on behalf of the United States from investigation through appeal. Cases included financial fraud, health care fraud, civil rights, tax, bankruptcy, Freedom of Information Act, employment discrimination, constitutional, and tort matters.
- Courtroom experience included trials involving the False Claims Act and the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act.
- Recipient of two Director's Awards for Superior Performance as an AUSA-Civil.

Bryan Cave LLP (now Bryan Cave Leighton Paisner), St. Louis, Missouri
Litigation Associate, September 2007 – July 2010

- Practiced in areas of intellectual property, class and derivative actions, and commercial litigation and served as pro bono counsel to the St. Louis Public Schools Advisory Committee and individuals referred by legal services organizations.

Education

New York University School of Law, New York, New York
J.D., Article and Note Editor, Journal of Legislation and Public Policy

Columbia University, Columbia College, New York, New York
B.A. in History, cum laude