The Legal Aid Bureau of Buffalo, Inc. is a not-for-profit agency located in downtown Buffalo that provides legal services for indigent criminal defendants who have been convicted of felonies in Cattaraugus, Erie, Genesee and Orleans County superior courts (Supreme and County Court). The clients’ convictions range from such comparatively minor crimes as criminal possession of stolen property or driving while intoxicated to and including burglary, robbery, sexual assault, and murder. The Appeals and Post-Conviction Unit of the Legal Aid Bureau, Inc. consists of a supervising attorney, a managing attorney and eleven staff attorneys, along with various support personnel. The duties of the staff attorney in each case consist of reading the transcript of the trial-level proceedings, discerning viable legal issues, researching those issues, communicating with the client about his or her case, drafting an appellate brief for filing in the Appellate Division, reviewing the District Attorney's respondent's brief, preparing a reply brief, and arguing the case before the Appellate Division.

An extern working in the Appeals and Post-Conviction Unit of the Legal Aid Bureau, Inc. would be assigned to work under the supervision of a staff attorney. The student extern will interview clients, handle legal research, draft pleadings, and accompany the attorney to court appearances. Additionally, the student extern will be trained to assist with VLP’s Family Court Help Desk. At the Help Desk, the student extern will meet with pro se litigants, conduct intake to obtain necessary information to determine eligibility, develop and improve interviewing and issue spotting skills, observe courtroom proceedings, shadow experienced family law litigators, develop mentoring relationships and participate in networking opportunities.

IMMIGRATION EXTERNSHIP
Office location: Buffalo and Batavia, NY.

Some background in immigration law is required. This can either be from having taken one or more law school classes concerning immigration law or practical experience working with immigration law matters. Fluency in foreign languages is a plus, but not required.

The student extern will engage in legal research and country condition research, and be offered the chance to observe and participate in an Immigration Court hearing. The student may also be involved in interviewing clients, and assisting with the VLP case as needed by staff or volunteer attorneys. This externship will take place in the VLP Immigration Program located in Buffalo or Batavia, NY.

LANDLORD-TENANT EXTERNSHIP
VLP’s Attorney of the Morning Program (AOM) provides representation to low-income tenants who are facing evictions in Buffalo City Court. The program operates on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings and on each of those days, an attorney who has been trained in landlord/tenant law is scheduled to be in the AOM. In this program, VLP lawyers meet the clients for the first time right at the courthouse. The goal is to help prevent them from becoming homeless. Law students will be responsible for performing client intake at the court house, working with the attorneys in the quick preparation and representation of cases, negotiating stipulations, writing up stipulations (well over half of the cases settle in the hallway), making appropriate follow-up referrals for clients, taking care of follow-up paper work and recordkeeping back at VLP’s office, and debriefing with the Supervising Attorney or program coordinator. Students not only learn to think on their feet, but they get to work with clients, the court clerks, and a wide variety of attorneys.

VLP also runs a Housing Helpline on Tuesdays and Thursdays providing legal advice and information to low-income tenants facing evictions outside of the City of Buffalo. Tenants call in for intake between 9am – 11am and are scheduled for a call back with a volunteer attorney between 12noon – 2pm on the same day. Law Students will be responsible for conducting phone intakes, making appropriate referrals, doing research and drafting legal memos on recurring housing issues, and providing brief legal advice and information with the supervision of an Attorney where necessary.

LOW-INCOME TAXPAYER CLINIC
The ECBA VLP Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic provides representation, education, and advocacy to low-income taxpayers in Western New York. The Clinic, through an in-house staff attorney and volunteer attorneys, CPAs, and Enrolled Agents, provides direct representation to taxpayers in federal tax controversies. A federal tax controversy can be any situation where the IRS claims the taxpayer owes more taxes than the taxpayer filed on their return, the taxpayer is eligible for a refund of taxes paid or credits and the IRS opposes that position, or the taxpayer does not contest the amount of taxes owed, but does not have the ability to pay. Further, the tax clinic provides educational outreach to low-income taxpayers, ESL taxpayers, and the organizations that serve those populations. Lastly, the tax clinic helps identify systemic issues in tax administration and alert the Taxpayer Advocate’s Office to ensure a fair and just tax system.

The extern will receive a student practice order to represent clients directly before the IRS. The student will work matters in any number of IRS functions, including audits, collections, and appeals. They will also be expected to participate in VLP’s Tax Court Calendar Call program, in which VLP provides on-site consultations and potentially representation to low-income pro se Tax Court petitioners. Preference will be given to a student who has taken Federal Income Tax and Administrative Law courses.

“SAY YES!” EXTERNSHIP
More than half of the children living in the City of Buffalo live in poverty. Significant numbers of these children attend the Buffalo Public Schools and their families face the loss of basic necessities due to a lack of access to the complex civil legal system and no representation within the legal system. VLP is partnering with Say Yes! to Education - Buffalo and the Buffalo Public Schools to assist these children and their families by providing free, walk-in legal clinics. The Say Yes! Legal Clinics provide clients with free limited-scope civil legal assistance and referrals in the more convenient location of their children’s public school.

Law student externs will have significant direct client contact while working in the Say Yes! Clinics. They will conduct initial client interviews, document the client’s financial eligibility and legal issues, brief the volunteer attorneys, observe the attorney-client interview, assist with legal and social service referrals, and debrief with VLP staff. Law student externs will also work with the VLP staff on development of training programs and materials; research and write substantive legal memos; engage in community outreach activities; and interact closely with Say Yes! Legal Clinic partners. The Say Yes! Legal Clinics are open Monday-Thursday from 3:30 – 5:30 in four Buffalo Public Schools and the extern will be expected to staff the clinic at least two days/week, spending the remaining time at the VLP offices.

UNEMPLOYMENT EXTERNSHIP
VLP’s Unemployment Insurance Benefits Program assists individuals throughout Western New York seeking to obtain or maintain their entitlement to unemployment insurance benefits (UIB). The UIB program primarily represents clients before the NYS Department of Labor at administrative hearings and appeals. Law student externs will have the opportunity to represent a client in an administrative hearing under the supervision of the UIB staff attorney. Law students will also engage in research and writing to be used in appeal cases. This externship provides excellent client interaction, hearing preparation and litigation experience. By assisting clients with their unemployment matters, law student externs will have the chance to make a significant impact by saving the client and their family from financial crisis and the host of legal problems that follow.

WORKING WITH POSITIVE FAMILIES AND INDIVIDUALS EXTERNSHIP
VLP has two attorneys who work exclusively with HIV positive people and their families. This work can be emotionally challenging, but also very rewarding. A wide range of case types are handled. These include planning for the long-term care of the clients’ children, other family law matters, wills, powers of attorney, bankruptcy, debt collection defense, discrimination, confidentiality, health law and a variety of other types of matters. The student will interview clients, handle legal research, and accompany the attorneys to some Court appearances.
CONSUMER DEBT CLINIC
Candidates must be available during the following days and times for the duration of their externship: Tuesday evenings from 5PM to 7PM, and on Fridays from 10AM to 12PM.

Externs are strongly encouraged to argue motions, which are typically scheduled on Wednesday and Friday mornings between 9:30 - 11:30AM.

As part of the work at the Western New York Law Center, we administer the Buffalo branch of CLARO, a consumer debt program that originated in New York City, in response to the overwhelming need for legal assistance to individuals being sued for subprime automobile loans, usurious credit agreements, student loans, and other consumer issues. The extern will meet with visitors to the consumer debt clinic, interview people to gather pertinent information, conduct legal research, draft legal documents and, with attorney supervision, argue motions before local courts.

SMALL BUSINESS LEGAL CLINIC
The Clinic’s mission is to promote neighborhood revitalization and socioeconomic mobility in Buffalo by providing low-income entrepreneurs and small businesses with the legal services they need in order to thrive. A student extern will conduct legal research on business entities, torts, contracts, intellectual property, licensing & permitting, zoning, and other business law topics with respect to which our clients need assistance.

Student externs should have previously taken a course in at least one of the following areas of law: employment, trademark, corporations, business taxation, or securities.
