Queens District Attorney's Office

The Queens DA will be unable to join us today. Please feel free to reach out to them directly.

Contact Information: Meredith Pinker Assistant Recruitment Coordinator (718) 286-5925 mgoldstonepinker@queensda.org	Address: 125-01 Queens Blvd. Kew Gardens, NY 11415

District Attorney Katz is building the finest prosecutor's office in the state and is making the Queens District Attorney's office the choice for talented and motivated attorneys.

She has assembled an unparalleled leadership team of top-notch career prosecutors, some from within the office itself and some who came to Queens from every major prosecutor's office in the metropolitan area. In addition, she has added talented staff with diverse backgrounds. Together, they are individuals who share her vision and assist her in making the Queens District Attorney's Office a well-managed and thoroughly professional public office.

District Attorney Katz leads a staff of over 350 Assistant District Attorneys plus an equal number of investigators, accountants, paralegals, administrative assistants, clerks and other support personnel. The office has been organized to reflect the prosecutorial priorities of her administration: assuring the safety of all those in Queens while at the same time instituting progressive and innovative strategies. On day one, for example, she created the office's first Conviction Integrity Unit, headed by a veteran of the Innocence Project.

Because the success of any district attorney's office depends on the performance of the Assistant District Attorneys on the front lines, we place the highest priority on attracting law school graduates who have the greatest potential to develop into first-class prosecutors and then on carefully and comprehensively training them in order to maximize their legal, trial and investigative skills.

In our view, the ideal prosecutor is as effective when summing up to a jury as when briefing and arguing a sophisticated issue of law. The ideal prosecutor is as comfortable when interviewing a suspect in a precinct at three o'clock in the morning as when cross-examining a defense expert in a courtroom at three o'clock in the afternoon. We believe each skill complements and enhances the other and strive to develop each of them with every one of our new assistants.

The Western New York Law Center, Inc. is a not-for-profit corporation formed in 1996 after Congress restricted the types of cases that Legal Services Corporation (LSC) grantees could handle. The Center represents low-income Western New Yorkers in civil matters, emphasizing those areas restricted by LSC. As part of our work, we administer the Buffalo branch of CLARO, a consumer debt program that originated in New York City, in response to the overwhelming need for legal assistance to individuals being sued for subprime automobile loans, usurious credit agreements, student loans, and other consumer issues.

Student interns are responsible for research, interviewing clients, drafting motions for foreclosure defense cases and class action lawsuits, assisting clients through our small business legal clinic, and arguing motions before City Court Judges under the student practice order for our CLARO clinic. Applications from current second year, third year, and LLM students are accepted.
