

THE ROAD TO ACADEMIC SUCCESS

1 FACULTY ADVISING

- Meet regularly with your academic advisor assigned at Orientation.
- Take advantage of faculty office hours for each of your classes.
- Reach out to other faculty members based on your areas of interest.

2 OFFICE OF ACADEMIC SUCCESS

- Be engaged in your Professional Development course during your first year of law school.
- Request one-on-one support for additional assistance.

3 OFFICE OF STUDENT AFFAIRS (OSA)

Attend a program organized by OSA or schedule a meeting with an OSA team member for assistance with:

- Personal concerns
- Unexpected issues
- Supplemental academic advising
- Referrals for counseling and accommodations.

4 MENTORING PROGRAMS

Learn from the experience of others by participating in our mentoring programs:

- Peer-to-Peer Advocate Program
- Alumni Mentor Program
- Alumni connections through the Office of Alumni Affairs.

5 OTHER RESOURCES

- Check your academic progress report regularly.
- Use the Law Library's academic success resources found on the library's 5th floor.
- Visit our law school website for the latest information on academic requirements, and bar exam and MPRE deadlines.
