

ERIN R. GOLDBERG

Buffalo, NY • (716) 645-3041 • erg6@buffalo.edu

LEGAL EXPERIENCE

University at Buffalo, School of Law

Staff Attorney, Civil Rights and Transparency Clinic

August 2022 to Present

Clinical staff attorney for an experiential learning clinic focused on civil rights and government transparency matters. Manages clinic matters focused on government transparency and New York State Freedom of Information Law. Directly supervises eight student attorneys on four ongoing matters in both the pre-litigation stage and ongoing litigation stage.

United States Army Reserve

Administrative Law Attorney, 7th Legal Operations Detachment

September 2021 to Present

Provides legal support operations for Active Component and Reserve Component Soldiers in the Northeastern US. Conducts administrative support and provides services such as wills and powers of attorney, AR 15-6 legal review support, and GOMOR memorandum drafting. In additional duty as Legal Assistance Program Manager, manages client data and client tracking for over 100 clients annually.

Thomson Reuters

Attorney Editor

August 2018 to August 2022

Provides legal editorial support in the form of research, writing, and analysis, to facilitate the maintenance of Thomson Reuters publications. Conducts publication review of over fifty legal text manuscripts per year for legal relevancy and compliance. Coordinates with authors' schedules, and drafts contracts and publishing standard agreements. Maintains a detailed and time sensitive schedule of publication deadlines.

New York State Office for People With Developmental Disabilities

Records Access Officer, Counsel's Office

March 2018 to August 2018

Interpreted FOIL statute and advisory opinions based on incoming agency FOIL requests. Drafted FOIL response letters and appeals decisions. Reviewed legal sufficiency of all clinical records requests and HIPAA related records requests. Ensured agency compliance with Personal Privacy Protection Law and HIPAA Privacy laws. Advised OPWDD General Counsel on FOIL, Disability Rights New York, and HIPAA compliance matters.

Excelsior Fellow, Attorney, Counsel's Office

September 2017 to August 2018

Drafted eligibility regulation promulgated under the New York Code Rules and Regulations. Coordinated with agency staff to maintain compliance with the ADA, Civil Rights Act of 1964, and other applicable federal statutes. Drafted developmental disability administrative memorandum. Drafted Commissioner hearing decision and memoranda.

Duke, Holzman, Photiadis & Gresens LLP

Law Clerk

May 2016 to February 2017

Conducted legal research and writing for commercial, employment, labor, and business litigation matters. Wrote and filed litigation documents, including memorandum of law, affidavits, complaints, answers, and notice of motions. Attended litigation hearings and mediation settlements.

University at Buffalo: Office of Science, Technology Transfer

Legal Intern

August 2016 to December 2016

Drafted licensing agreements, Material Transfer Agreements, and Technology Transfer Agreements. Worked directly with educational, corporate, and non-profit entities negotiating contractual terms and conditions.

EDUCATION & CERTIFICATIONS

University at Buffalo School of Law – Juris Doctor

BUFFALO LAW REVIEW—2016-2017 Head Note and Comment Editor; 2015-2016 Associate

BUFFALO HUMAN RIGHTS LAW REVIEW—2016-2017 Articles Editor; 2015-2016 Associate

Honors: Donald D. Serotte Scholarship; BUFFALO LAW REVIEW Associate Publication Award

State University of New York at Fredonia– Bachelor of Arts, magna cum laude

Honors: Graduating Senior Outstanding History Major Award; David H. Carnahan Scholarship

Bar Admission - New York State, January 2018

PUBLICATIONS

Buffalo Law Review

A Sisterhood of Arms: Envisioning Conscription and Selective Service Post-Gender Integration of Combat Arms

This Comment explores gender's relation to military service and Selective Service. Specifically, it highlights the potential for change in Selective Service due to the removal of the ban on women in combat arms. The Comment suggests the potential pros and cons of changing the current system of Selective Service, and further explores the role that women could play if such changes were made.

Erin Goldberg, A Sisterhood of Arms: Envisioning Conscription and Selective Service Post-Gender Integration of Combat Arms, 64 BUFF. L. REV. 1135 (2016)

MILITARY SERVICE

United States Army Reserve

Battalion Adjutant, 1-304th Regiment, 3rd Brigade, 98th Division

April 2020-August 2021

Leads a Personnel Staff section of four Soldiers in conducting personnel actions and readiness maintenance for a Battalion element of 150 personnel. Responsible for tracking monthly officer and NCO evaluations, Battalion awards, and MR2 metrics.

Commander, B Company, 1-304th Regiment, 3rd Brigade, 98th Division

January 2018-April 2020

Commanded a company of twenty personnel, including fifteen Drill Sergeants. Attended to the personnel, pay, and training needs of Bravo Company soldiers. Implemented Battalion Commander's objectives to ensure BCT mission and deployment readiness. Worked collaboratively with company staff sections to plan training and obtain resources to assist in meeting mission standards.