Clarifications, Corrections, and Amplifications

[Updated: March 4, 2019]

The following clarifications are stipulated as FACTS for the Competition:

1. Guldoon was arrested on December 7, 2010.
2. ROSA was approved and signed by the Governor on July 21, 2015, with an effective date of January 21, 2016.
3. Guldoon has no recollection of sending a Valentine to B.B. The Valentine is undated. Prior to her arrest, Guldoon sent Valentines to all her students every year.
4. There is an error in the pre-sentence report. Guldoon was arrested in December 2010 and pleaded guilty in January 2011.
5. The parole requirements prior to enactment of ROSA are contained in the “General Requirements” in the Joint Appendix.
6. The District Court states that Guldoon would “likely” be forced to surrender her driver’s license because – in the Court’s opinion – she used a vehicle to commit her crimes.
