

May 2024 – Waiver Reducing Experiential Learning Requirements

On May 10, 2024, the voting faculty voted unanimously to waive three (3) of the six (6) experiential credits that are part of the School of Law's upper-division course requirements. This change was placed into effect for all students who matriculated August 2023 or later.