

Qualifying Courses - Con Law II and LAWR III

2025-2026

| Con Law II Qualifying Courses |        |  |         |
|-------------------------------|--------|--|---------|
| Fall                          | LAW612 | Con Law II: Individual Rights-Due Process, Equal Protection, First Amendment | Mate    |
| Fall                          | LAW582 | Con Law II: First Amendment/Free Speech                                      | Finley  |
| Spring                        | LAW612 | Con Law II: Individual Rights-Due Process, Equal Protection, First Amendment | Gargano |
| Spring                        | LAW612 | Con Law II: Individual Rights-Due Process, Equal Protection, First Amendment | Melish  |
|                               |        |  |         |
|                               |        |  |         |
|                               |        | Note: LAW863 does not count, as it is only two credits.        |         |

| LAWR III Qualifying Courses |        |  |            |
|-----------------------------|--------|--|------------|
| Fall/Spring                 | LAW517 | LAWR IIIE: Mastering Legal Analysis, Research, and Writing in Litigation                             | Stark      |
| Fall/Spring                 | LAW517 | LAWR IIIE: Mastering Legal Rules in Statutes & Contracts   | Paskey     |
| Fall/Spring                 | LAW517 | LAWR IIIE: Mastering Legal Research and Writing for Private Practice                                 | Brown      |
| Fall/Spring                 | LAW512 | Fed Cts Judicial Research & Writing  | Stark      |
| Fall                        | LAW675 | Legislation, Regulation, and Policymaking  | Wallace    |
| Spring                      | LAW788 | Asylum Appellate Advocacy Practicum  | Giammatteo |
|                             |        | Note: Neither LAW632LEC nor LAW633LEC (Law review seminar will count for LAWR III or seminar) |            |